ATTORNEY AT LAW INSURANCE AND GENERAL AGENT, And Notary Public, CLYDE, SANDUSKY COUSTY, O.

all business intrusted to his earn faithfully and promptle W. I. KELLEY, M. D.

Homeoputhy.

or, J. W. Farrier, having established himself for the roos of practicing Homocognahy in this place and vity, would respectfully amounce to the public that he mant arrangements will enable those destrous of avail themselves of Homocognahic treatment, to ruly sittainty upon prompt attention to their calls, whether it

N. B. Dr. F. pays particular attention to all forms broads diseases. Framert, April 10, 1866 ROBERT B. RICK.

R. S. RICE & SON, Physicians & Surgeons, THEMONY, O.

CONGER & SHAW. Prer plate.
They would say that a set of ther Teeth took the presium at the late County Fair.

They construct in Buckland's Block, up-stairs.
Frement, Oct. 22, 1858.

SURGEON DENTIST. L. BEILHARZ,

OF Tiffin, has permanently located in Fronont. After having had also years experience, he considers himself competent to car on the profession, in all its various forms and guarante satisfaction in every case.

Office in Shome's block, formerly occupied by Dr. B. I Taber. All operations warranted.

Fromont, March 18, 1859.

C. R. MCCULLOCH, Drugs, Medicine, Dye-Stuffs, Glass, Paints, BUREAUS, No. 3, Buckland Block, FREMONT.

S. BUCKLAND,

DEALER IN Drugs, Medicines, Chemicals, Paints, Oils, Varuishes, Dya-Stuffe, Burning Fluid, Rooks, Station-ers, Wall Paper, Fancy Goods, Toys, Gigam, Chewing Tobacco, &c., &c., &c. FREMONT, OHIO.

Roberts & Sheldon. Manufacturers of Copper, Tin, and Sheet-Iron Ware, and salers in Stoves, Agricultural Implements, Stoves, Rags and Higher Sheer, salts, Old Const.

Hotel Beery (FORMERLY THE OHIO HOUSE.) A. J. BEERY, Proprietor THIS HOUSE, so long kept by David A. J. BEERY.

Fremont, June 29, 1800.-25y1.

CROGHAN HOUSE. FREMONT, O. FRANK N. GURNEY, RROPRIETOR.

Guests of the Hor free of charge. KESSLER'S HOTEL

(Formerly the Fremont House.)
WM. KESSLER, Proprietor, FREMONT, OHIO.

February 26, 1868. JOHN BRIGHTWELL,

House and Sign Painter, Gilder, Grainer and Paper Hanger; Kalsomining done to order, on short notice. SHOP in BUCKEYE BLOCK, up-stairs, opposite Robert & Sheldon's tin shop, FEETSON'T, O. Apr27'59.

四年 海東 東 平田 And Inland Navigation Insurance. Home Insurance Company, of New York, with a Capital and Surplus of $1,500,00 WHILE the above Company has only been in exist-ence about seven years, yet it ranks as one of THE BEST INCRANCE COMPANIES IN THE LAND. With a large Capital, eccurely invested, and a strong Board of Officers, who are devoted to its interest, and a reputation for the PROMPT PAYMENT OF ITS LOSSES, It con the confidence of the public. R. W. B. McLELLAN, Fremont, June 8, 1860.

ALE. ALE. QUINN'S CELEBRATED KENNETT Stock and present use Ale

st Cleveland prices, with addition of freight. By the bar rel or half barrel. Also, ON DRAFT, at Fremont, May 24, 1861. THEO CLAPPS.

AMBROTYPES. M. W. FITCH, and friends, that he is still MAKING PIC TURES in the BEST STYLE, and on an real mable terms as any artist in town. He has Lately added a large Camera, to his apparatuse apable of taking ambrotypes direct fre the siter, nearly or quite the size of life. To lift ain ings made from daguerrectypes or from life and warants ratificatory. Instructions given in the business. ROOMS Over the Bank of Fremout, corner of Fre Fremont, March 18, 1859.

Fremont Livery and Sale Stable DAVID MOORE. THE SURSCRIBER has just comp ted his new Brick State. He by feet, on Front street, tellow the Crugh House, and is now porting in a lar number of the best horses, with new and handsome by give and Carringes, which he will let to the citizens Froncus, on more responsible ten than the

Saddle Horses,

I have no Old Worn out Stock! Horses keet for male, and any person wanting to puchase a good animal, can always find one to suit them.
Horses boarded by the day or week on reasonable term
DAVID MOORE,
CHAS. W. MOORE, Agent.
Fremowt, Ech. 10, 1860—17.

FREMONT, LIMA AND UNION

NOTICE is hereby given that Rocks will be opened scriving subscriptions to the Capital Stock of Fremont, Lima & Union Railroad Comp'y, on the 3d day of Marsh next, at 10 o'clock A. M., at the Court Heuse is Fremont, in the county of Sandusky, and State of Ohio. CHARLES CONGDON, D. J. CORY Premont, Jan. 11, 1801.

445

F HOMER EVERBET R. P. BUCKLAND. BUCKLAND & EVERETT.

ESTABLISHED 1829. VOL. XXXIII.

NEW SERIES, VOL. X, NO. 8.

FREMONT, SANDUSKY COUNTY, OHIO, FEBRUARY 28, 1862.

ROUGH AND READY'S New Ambrotype Gallery.

FREMONT, OHIO. ARCHIBOLD has opened a NEW GALLERY at the above place; having the FROM ONE SHILLING TO ONE DOLLAR. one and all and get your pictures while you can get CHEAF and GOOD. I warrant all my pictures to is long as any other Pictures taken. A large stock ses &c., so hand. Nov. 29, 1861. Smo

WARE - ROOMS!

WM. TSCHUMY

TAKES pleasure in announcing to the citizens of Fre mont and surrounding country, that he has complete in new Shop and Furniture Ware-Rooms, on the corner of Front and Garrison Streets. Birectly opposite T. Clapp's Grocery and Confections Where he is prepared to furnish all in want of Farnits of any kind, with as good an article, and as cheap as a other establishment in Sandusky county. Among

TABLES STANDS, CHAIRS.

BEDSTEADS, LOOKING-GLASSES PARLOR FURNITURE, and in fact every article

SEASONED TIMBER Premont, March 19, 1858. Syl

Tobacco and Cigars. WHOLESALE AND RETAIL POSS has REMOVED his TO-BACCO STORE to BUCKLAND'S NEW BLOCK, to the West.

I am manufacturing Cigars from the very HEST

SPANISEE TOFFACCO, and every man who loves a good Cigar is is invited to call and try one. Sold at Wholesale or Retail, and at lower rates than can be bought elsewhere. All kinds of Chewing and Smoking kept on hand. Fremont, July 19, 1861—tf.

JOHN YOUNKMAN,

DEALER IN Foreign and American Marble! Proglam Street, one door west of the Tyler Brick Block, Fremont, Ohio.

MONUMENTS, MANTLE-PIECES, and and all kinds of Marble work executed in the nest-corders are respectfully solicited, and all work warranted to satisfy. Fremont, January, 1862.

G. B. HELLER.

DEALERS IN Foreign and American MARBLE:
Monuments

We guaratee to please or no charge.
Shop at the old at and on Croghan Street.
Fremont, O. May 30, 1961. FURNITURE!

THE subscriber has and will see standy keep the best assortment FURNITURE, to be found in Sanduse County, which he will sell cheap at Superior Workmanship.

COFFINS, Of different sizes; varying in price and quality to suit the tastes of rich or poor. He also has a splendid HEARSE that will accompany his Coffins at Funerals.

His Shop and Ware Rooms are situated in Ballville mearly opposite the Ballville Factory.

Ballville, May 11, 1855.—16y1 JOHN G. SIMON.

INSURANCE NOTICE.

CONNECTICUT MUTUAL LIFE IN-83,500,000.

HOME FIRE AND INLAND NAVI-GATION INSURANCE COMPANY, of New York. With a capital and surplus of .......$1,500,000. CONWAY FIRE INSURANCE COM

PANY, of Conway, Mussachusetts.
With a capital and surplus of over ..... $250,000. The above are reliable Companies, well worthy the con dence of all persons desiring first class insura heir lives or property.

Losses promptly paid. R. W. B. McLELLAN, Agent. Fremont, Jose 8, 1860.

MEAT MARKET.

Fuchs, Adler & Vogt, HAVING hought the establishment of Ma n Front street, are now prepared to furnish all-ties of Meat usually kept in the Market. SALT AND FRESH MEATS,

Of the hest quality, will at all times he kept on hand, am no effort spared to picase all. Farmers and others having fat eastle, sheep and hogs, are requested to give us a cal-before disposing of these.

The publicacan always he accommodated by calling a rither of our chops—foll Stand on Front Street, or the on the bank of the river to the rear of Bettie Block.

F. Meats delivered to any part of the town, who desired, without extra charge.

Framous, June 14, 1881

BOOK BINDERY! MAGAZINES, RE-BIND OLD BOOKS, &C., in a most substantial style. All Work WARRANTED.
Call and examine my work.
Recon-East end of the Democrat Office, third story of linekland's Block.
Framout, March 16, 1861

NOT SECEDED.

IS STILL IN OPERATION!

surpassed by any cast John T. Aldrica, J

Wheat Drills
Warranted superior to any in use. Dinner Bells. 16 and 24 gallon Keitles. Cider Mill Serews. Coal Grates, a nice arfele. Straw Cutters. Soot Colters. Corn Planters, &c., &c. Also, a few tons superior Smiths' Coal. Such as Finishing, Screw Cutting, In Assessment Such as Finishing, Screw Cutting, &c., &c., done to order,

E.F. All work WARRANTED and done upon honor. All

Having had 25 years experience in the business, I feel confident of giving SATISFACTION.

George Collum,
F. Cables,
David Collver,
Wm. Chamberl

Terms-Cash or Ready pay. Prices to suit the times. J. HASKELL.
Bellevue, Ohio, Nov. I, 1861. 421y

GUNSMITH SHOP The subscriber announces to the public that he as opened a GUNSMITH SHOP on the East Side of the liver, hear Capt. Thompson's, where he will be ready to o work for all who may call upon him. I will also keep a hand NEW GUNS, and will sell them very CHEAP—all and judge for yourselves. JACOB STROHL.
Fromont, August 30, 1861. 6mo

Do You Want a Farm ! TALL ON BUCKLAND & EVERETT, Fremont, Ohio. They have for sale amongst other, the E. M. Sec. 7, T. 4, R. 16, containing 329 acres, Wilkes' Farm, on Green Creek, out three miles east of Fremont, which will, if offer it, be sold in 80 acre lots, or altogether as purchaser and, be sold in ordered and any may desire ordered and a 29 acre tract near the same, which will be separately sold. For further particulars apply at the office of the undersigned, at Frenent, O.

BUCKLAND & EVERETT. August 6, 1800.-31w4.

Wholesale and Retail Dealers in Hard-ware!

IRON, NAILS, SADDLERY.

PAINT, OILS, GLASS, &C.,

No.2, Betts' Block, Front-st, FREMONT, OHIO.

innexed is a List of a portion of our Stock which we offer to Mechanics and Farmers, at as LOW PRICES as they can be bought in any market: A full stock of the following articles.

Re IRON. AT STEEL RE NAILS,

AT CUTLERY, AT SAWS. AT GLASS, Car AXES. AT JOINERS' TOOLS,

RE SMITHS TOOLS. AF FARMERS' TOOLS, AT COOPERS' TOOLS. WILLOW WARE,

AT LAMPS. BURNING FLUID, REF OIL, AT TURPENTINE,

D. LEBCHER, COACH TRIMMING HARDWARE, ROSIN. REF PUTTY, AT RED LEAD.

BY CHROMES, AT TAR. AT OIL CLOTH,

AT WHIPS, BRUSHRS,

BIRD CAGES, PAINTS. PATENT SKEINS & BOXES, ROPE AND CORDAGE, AT HUBS.

FELLOES. 10 &C., dec., dec.

FALL STOCK OF HARD-WARE rom New York at WAR PRICES, and we also secured a ecooeding low freight on the same. We are now pre-

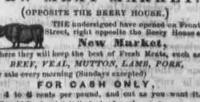

Mechanics and Farmers, Who have so liberally patronized us for the past eleve years a real Old Fashioned Benefit, in the way of LE LOW PRICES. ET We desire to call particular attention of those who want MILL and CROSS CUT SAWS, e can give better bargains in that line than any con west of Buffalo. Also, in the way of Carpenters' & Black Smiths' Tools we are A, No. 1. Saddlery, Carriage Trimmings, COIL CHAIN, We have much the largest stock in town and at the var LOWEST PRICE. We cannot particularize goods in detail, but will say that if you want any thing in our line give us a call, and satisfy yourselves that the OLD REGULATOR HARD-WARE STORE, Is THE PLACE to buy at.

At the Sign of the PAD DLOCK. Betts' Block. CANFIELD & BROTHER. FREMONT, O., Nov. 15, 1861.

NEW MEAT MARKET (OPPOSITE THE BEERY HOUSE.)

at A to 6 rents per pound, and out as you want it.
Corn's lies and sait l'uck also for mile.
Farmers liaving good fat stock, (none other stanted) can sub to us by calling at our Market House.
Fremont, Aug. 23, 1861. 23meds

MUSTER ROLL COMPANY A. 72ND BEGINENT, O. 1 Captain,-CHARLES G. EATON, Linut - HENRY W. Grevono. -SPENCER RUSSELL

Seth Cloud.

Chas Dirlam,

Harkness Lay,

David De

Seth Livengood, John Longwell, Christopher Metz, William G. Miller, Andrew Bradbury, Thomas Babeock, Lafayette McCarty, Nathan B. Mason, Samuel Berger, Murray Brown, Ezra Moe, William Miller, Alexander Murray Morgan L. Morse, William Murray, Charles H. McClearly George Malthy, Pierson C. McGill, Wm. Chamberlain, Isanc Moe, Sebastian Nice, Sherman Newman Edward O'Coner, David Doing, James A. Drown, Jacob M. Duesler, Zelotus Perrin. George Pettinger, Emanuel Pike, Nathaniel Pettinger Richard Datton, S. K. Dwight, Freedom S. Gates, Elihu Parker. Martin Golden, Morris Pilgrim, Edwin Reynolds, Almon Rodgers, Samuel P. Ross, Emnious Harkness Charles Remning Stephen A. Rodgers Joseph Sharpe, Leslie E. Sparks, Solomon Stage, Jeremiah Stage, Charles Hartman. McFall Harkness, John Tompkins, Jerome Vantassel, John M. Vantasse James Hastings, onathan F. Harrington Jacob Heath. William Wocks, David Hackett, Harmon Wright, John H. Wadams Daniel Jones, Martin L. Jordan, William Wolverton seph L. Jackson enry Jack, Charles Woodruff, A. R. Whiteman, A. J. Whiteman.

MUNTER ROLL.

COMPANY H. 72ND REGIMENT, O. V. Captain .- M. WEGRYEIN, Joseph Seaffert, Andrew Gunkle, Gustavus Gessner, Jacob Schreiber. -Jacob Nass. 1st Corporal, Lewis Snyder, F. Schuler, John Buckman Markus Wolf.

John Carley, Philip Fertig, Jacob Lang. PRIVATES. John Burger, Jackson Bender Jacob Mohler Francis Mitler. Shristian Benedict, Sarnhart Brost, Friece Mitler, Friece Mitler, George Moll, Henry Markwalter, Michael Nice, Subastian Nice, Henry Dickman, Rudolph Dilger, Lewis Durr, John Engle, Clemence Echom, Anthony Ottney, Joseph Orth, John Obliyer, Jacob Fessler, George Freueritze, George Pheilmeier Charles Rimmiel, George Gerger, Palue Geor, Simon Giebel, Lewis Row, Joseph Remmili, Charles Smith, Lugian Greilich, Jacob Steitz, Andrew Spath, Jacob Stell, Henry Stull, Nicholas Huber. Lacas Hass, Fridolin Heid, Andrew Schumaker George Ungert, Leonbart Keller, Martin Kilian, Joseph Willi, Frederick Werner, John Kungler,

Lewis Lehr, Frederick Loomis, Joseph Yungel, Peter Zimmerman Rochus Link, Re-Union In Heaven. How short is the earthly history of family! A few short years, and those who are now embraced in a family circle will be scattered. The children, now the objects of tender solicitude, will have grown up and gone forth to their respective sta tions in the world. A few more years, and children and parents will have passed from this earthly stage. Their names will be no longer heard in their present dwelling.—
Their domestic loves and anxieties, happiness and sorrows, will be a lost and forgotten history. Every heart in which it was written will be mouldering in the dust.—
And is this all? Is this the whole satisfaction which is provided for some of the strongest feelings of our hearts? How can such transitory beings, with whom our connection transitory beings, with whom our connection transitory beings, with whom our connection that the love we can feel! the love we can feel! the love we can feel! written will be mouldering in the dust.—
And is this all ! Is this the whole satisfaction day night, indicates a desired transitory beings, with whom curcomection is so brief, engage all the love we can feel; and is so brief, engage all the love we can feel; and for themselves and Gen. McClellan, at the expense of the faithful men who have be as feeble and unsatisfactory as they!—
But, blessed be God, this is not all. Of this has not given us perfect assurance in the Gospel of his Son. Though to the expense of Congress who urged eye of an unenlightened nature the ties of domestic love seem scattered into the dust, have been loosened on earth only to be resumed under far happier circumstances in the resumed under far happier circumstances in the region of everlasting blies and love.—
Though the history of a family may seem to be forgotten when the last member of it is laid in the grave, the memory of it still lives with immortal souls, and when the lives with immortal souls, and when the gentlemen to deny this fact, but the state-circle is wholly dissolved on earth, it is again ment is susceptible of proof. completed in Heaven.

"I CAN DIE NOW AND DON'T CARR."— repeatedly put his shoulder to the wheel of late, and absolutely demanded immediate the gunboat Essex when the rebel flag on action of his generals, that the country

Dress plainly: the thunest soap-butbles wear the gaudiest colors.

He who turns from evil habits does himself York, Feb. 14, 1862.

Letter from Washington. Washington, February 19, 1862.

Ma. Entron:-The victories which one after another crowd the page of our passing history are not the work of blind chance, nor are they my part or parcel of a "great plan" which has gent man who desires that our governbeen heralded so much in certain papers .-- ment would put down the rebellion, could They are the results of mature deliberation and have their origin in the War Department. Our new Secretary of War was only installed about or that such man could persuade himself galleries. one week, when he remarked one day to a friend that the constitution furnishes peculiar prothat he was determined in twenty days from tection to one kind of property more than that time "to have either a fight or a foot race." to another. The constitution does not at-We have had the fights and the results are known. These are only the beginning of the chapter. Our fights will not stop here; they will go on just as rapidly as our men can be constitution or code of laws in any nation ally from their seats, and rushed round Me ery nor to put it down. He is fighting to put try is his care; slavery must take care of itself, idea that all things animate or inanimate, These victorious reports, which we hear of except man himself, may be property; and from day to day, coming up as they do through the mud and bad weather, lead inquisitive people in this city to sak very many questions which two weeks ago would have been considered ill-timed, impertinent and almost treasonsole. It is now asked in all quarters, "if our men are able to do such things in Kentucky and Tennessee, why are they not able to do so in Virginia?"

Some persons are going so far as to ask, "is our General-in-Chief competent?" The New York Herald, and the Evening Star of this City, say he is. Vallandigham and Cox of Ohio say hu is, therefore he must be! His competency being thus irrefutably settled, we are left to grope our way to the conclusion that either his courage or loyalty is at fault, or else people have no room to doubt, because yesterday, by a joint resolution, the thanks of Congress were voted to the commanders and men who participated dings to illuminate the Capitol Saturday evenng, 22d, in commemoration of our victories. It is not generally known that Gen. Fremont graduate, he would have had command of Mc-Clellan without the least doubt, because no men York or Ohio, or any were else. are so tenacious of military rule as the West

McClellan should have run more than six months

There is some talk among members of Con-the emancipation of Slaves against the will of gress of presenting a sword to the man who slaveholding States, ss a military necessity, on shall soonest show himself worthy of it, and the any ground whatsoever! ontrary notwithstanding.

he could not keep from running around."

The President and the Recent Victories Correspondence of the N. Y. Eve. Post. WASHINGTON, Feb. 16. 1862.-The re-

It is also a fact, and the people have a right to know it, that President Lincoln has Fort Henry was lowered in token of surren might be saved from the disgrace of foreign der: The last ball took effect on the Essex intervention. To the President the peoabout fifteen minutes before the rebel flag ple owe more to day for the late successes came down, and, consequently, she failed than to any other man in the employ or to be in at the death. One of the scalded connected with the government, and this is years past. It frequently happens that the more intense advantage of our successes to injure the more intense at 30° below zero. With the more intense cold there is also more snow, and the sleighing is good. That dreaded disease, dipheral prevails to some extent, and in several instances has proved fatal. In a family of Norwegian emigrants three died in one week.

Dress plainly: the thinnest evap-bubbles wear the gaudiest colors.

The who turns from evil habits does himself a good turn.

The would save our government and that if we would save our government and that if we would save our government and that it we would save our government and that it wo must seek men for death, we must seek men for office, whose lives unmistakely guarantee their love of justice and sound morality, and of terror makes as afsaid of ear she whose political principles recognize justice their love of justice and sound morality, and of the reversal and supprence rule of section.

The man who truly loves justice, will not be likely to do a deliberate wrong, nor will such men be friends of slavery, or of the lattern that a systematic at the color of the reversal and supprence rul

Communicated

MR. KEELER :- I have noticed in some o your late issues a reference to Mr. Tuoner's vote on the Dressel Resolutions. I agree with you in your surprise that any intellihave given countenance to such a resolution, which in full volume rose from flo on earth attempts such a thing. The rea-Our Secretary is not fighting to sustain sla- son is obvious. National law, supported by this general idea of mankind is austained by the Word of God-And God said, let us make man in our own is our own likeness; and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the six, and over the and heartily, and with a beaming face, attle, and over the earth, and over every creeping thing that creeps th upon the earth.—Genezis i, xxvi

It will be observed that this divine grant of property is made to all men without disthings to man as property, except man himself.

Our Constitution proceeds on the above universally received definition of property, and undertakes to protect every person within its jurisdiction, in the possession and enjoyment of his property; but nowhere we extract the closing paragraph: doubts; that Congressis also willing we have no does this Constitution even by implication, recognize any thing as property, which is not recognized as such by common consent in the late glorious victories of both army and of mankind, by the laws of nature and the navy, and to show its still increasing pleasure, laws of God. Nor does this Constitution it authorized the Commissioner of Public Buil- in any way secure the possession of any possession of all kinds of property.

out the incompetency of Gen. Fremont, but that the incompetency of Gen. McClellan was left to show itself, if there was any in question.

Resolved, That Slavery is a State institution, guaranteed as such by the Constitution and laws of the United States, and we cannot agree that the National Government shall undertak > and as no State has any such sovereignty little shade of an inward desire that the rebels may triumph. rebels may triumph.

Although it is to be regretted that Mr. agerated. Lieut. Phelps says:

Thorpe should entertain views which led

I now come to the most interesting por-

the people who voted for him were also sat-isfied with him, they ought, at least, to be under the stars and stripes at Moultrie,

Fort Donelson to Congress, by of the Senate, Great la by the announcement of the fact that Black stole away. In the House the scene a During the reading of the briof but in-tensely exciting dispatch, just unfliciently long, and fraught with tidings to stir the bearts of all patriotic mon, there was see evident effort to restrain the featings, which at its conclusion, burst forth in a ringing cheer and clapping of hands such as were never heard in the hall before. For the first time the professional etiquette of the reporters, gallery was broken, and this at all times orderly, amid the disorderly portion of the house, echoed with the notes of joint in fall volume rose from floor and

In vain the punctiflious Speaker struct his gavel to bring back the House to order None could see impropriety or infraction or rules in such an indulgence of patriotic feel Colfax as a common center, he retreats to the open space outside the seats.

Here congratulations went on apace as very nor to put it down. He is fighting to put a sudden stop to this rebellion. If slavery is in the way, he will give it no more quarters than he will give the rebels. The welfare of the counof the world have been unanimous in the gray hairs, was most distinguishable, and for some minutes wherever he moved he encountered the outstretched hands of his compeers, who congratulated him on the glorious event which had cleared Old Keytucky of the rebels, who had so long held in did the old patriot respond to the general

The Speaker had a busy time of it with of property is made to all men without dis-tinction of race or color, and subjects all purpose, as it was felt that there was no indecorum committed in such a demonstration of joyous and loyal feeling over the victories of the Union.— World. corum committed in such a demonstration

"Smite it in the Name of God." From an eloquent speech delivered Congress by Representative Geo. W. Julian, SMITE IT IN THE NAME OF GOD! Sir, this rebellion is a bloody and frightful demonstration of the fact that slavery and freedom cannot dwell togeter in peace. The experiment has been tried thoroughly perseveringly, and with a patience which de fied despair, and has cluminated in civil war. particular kind of property more than the We have pursued the spirit of conciliation to the very gates of death, and yet the "irre-It is not generally known that Gen. Fremont out-ranks Gen. McClellan. The way in which that comes about is this: Both Generals received their commissions as Majors General of the of any kind of property to one man, that is half a million of men in its work of treason, regular army on the same day. When this is not equally secure to every map; nor is postule case, the man who formerly held the highest est military rank is the highest officer of the same commission. This is the military law; that is not secured in every locality, so that bence, then, Gen. Fremont should have comman- whatever may be held as property by virtue All the crimes and borrors of this struggle ded McClellan instead of McClellan commanding him. Had Gen. Fromont been a West Point

Virginia, may be held as property in New

In the fires of the revolution which it has York or Ohio, or any were else.

It is quite evident therefore, that the idea of property in man has no support in the cies of the best left of the battle field, the bodies and limbs In Gen. Fremont's case one thing is perfectly Constitution, and that whatever of property mangled and maimed for life, the widow incomprehensible; that is, why in six week's time from the time he assumed command he should have had a Committee after him in the If the Constitution expressly established sanction and practice of piracy, and the imdoing nothing, and have no one sent after him slavery, and secured the possession of that minent peril to which the cause of free doing nothing, and have no one sent litter him to investigate his competency. The only plausable way to account for this, is on the supposition that it took a very sharp Committee to find the first took a v us to smite it in the name of God.

The Tennessee Expedition-Official Re-

The official report of Lieut, Phelps, com manding the recent Gun-boat Expedition best fighters are the men who will be placed —but, as the letter and spirit of the Con- up the Tennessee River has been published. over our troops newspaper generalship to the stitution are in direct conflict with slavery, We cannot find space for it entire, but that Andy Johnson was heard to remark to a friend as authorizes the enactment of laws, or the portion referring to his reception by the the day on which we obtained the news of cap- creation of institutions that are contrary to people on the route and their temper and turing Fort Donelson, that "he felt like a little the Constitution, it follows that Mr. Dres feelings towards the Union, is too importboy who had just got his first suit of clorhes | sel's resolution is not the product of careful ant to be passed by, and we give it below examination, though possibly, it betrays a From this it will be seen that the first favorable reports on that subject were not ex-him (nomination under the circumstances beform of persecution. Tears flowed freelying nearly equivalent to an election,) and down the cheeks of men as well as of wo mild in the censure they lay upon him. If it is plead that they were unacquainted with him and did not know his sentiments, then the blame should rest on themselves.

Our whole people are now undergoing a change of views on the subject of slavery, and the rights of colored men. Probably a greater progress has been made in the right. came down, and, consequently, she laked to be in at the death. One of the scaled with the government, and this is said the death. One of the scaled with the government, and this is said the death. One of the scaled with the government, and this is said the death. One of the scaled with the government, and this is said without casting a reflection upon any of the generals engaged in the battles which resulted so gloriously to our arms.—

They are indebted to Mr. Linceln for the grand opportunity of rescuing their country and winning a golden renown. Of course don't care? In a few moments he was dead.

A private letter from Fillmore country, in mineral connected with the government, and this is said without casting a reflection upon any of the generals engaged in the battles which resulted so gloriously to our arms.—

They are indebted to Mr. Linceln for the grand opportunity of rescuing their country and winning a golden renown. Of course Mr. Linceln was sustained by the people of the generals engaged in the battles which resulted so gloriously to our arms.—

They are indebted to Mr. Linceln for the same length of time in any nation in the world. Investigation, desting a reflection within eight or ten months than the sacred character of our present duties which resulted so gloriously to our arms.—

They are indebted to Mr. Linceln for the saure courted in the same length of time in any nation in the world. Investigation, desting a reflection within eight or ten months than the court of time in any nation in the world. Investigation, desting and the right of ten months that the court of time in any nation in the world. Investigation, desting and harsh rebuke are sure to retard it. In the present gloomy condition of our country to any nation in the world. Investigation, desting and harsh rebuke are sure to retard it. In the present gloomy condition of our country to any nation in the world. Investigation, desting any nation in the world. Investigation, desting any nation in the world. Investigation, desting any na